CITY PLAYGROUNDS PLAN PROGRAMS TO HONOR JOSEPH LEE

Proclamation calling for observance of July 21 through 27 by Albany's Mayor, Charles F. Graeber, and civic sponsorship by the Albany Recreation Department focus public attention on the objectives and conduct of recreation as a live tribute to Joseph Lee.

Special programs will be held at the various playgrounds through the week and Mayor Graeber has urged Albany citizens to visit their neighborhood playgrounds during the week. Chairman Blow of the Park and Recreation Commission stated that in keeping with Joseph Lee's philosophy that every child should be given an opportunity to participate in a public recreation program and that these activities be held in proper environment under supervision as a governmental function, Albany can well be proud of its national reputation in the field of recreation since the establishment of a municipal and school department. Blow added that the Park and Recreation Commission, through the Recreation Department, provided services to 366,612 boys and girls and 84,483 adults who attended the playgrounds and centers during the past fiscal year 1945-46. Albany High school Teen-Age center has maintained an average of 158 boys and girls each

Saturday night for the year's period.

Albany's special events during the week will include Albany Police and Firemen vs. Exchange Club, Sunday, July 21st, at 11:00 a. m. at Memorial Park for the inter-club championship and perpetual softball trophy.

Cornell school under the direction of Milt Gordon and Robert Dunnivan have scheduled boys' softball games for Monday, Wednesday and Friday and a Marin-Cornell playground game for Wednesday. All contests are scheduled for 1:30 p. m. Boys and girls ping pong and checker tournaments in addition to the regular activities.

Marin School playground, under the direction of Marjorie Sugden and Mildred Gere, will have a special picnic for Friday, July 26, with emphasis on low organization games for the day.

Directors Fern Kaiser and Pearl Pound are arranging a wiener roast for Wednesday noon at Terrace Park with games and races on the agenda after the luncheon.

Over at Memorial Park, Constable Ellis and Bett Thorpe are scheduling a complete day's program to include handicraft, story hour, picnic lunch, games, races and tournaments. Superintendent of Recreation E. S. Howell, states that picnic facilities will be available

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION Joseph Lee Day

The week of July 21-27 will be observed throughout the nation as "Joseph Lee Week" in honor of the late Joseph Lee, father of the playground and recreation movement in this country.

Joseph Lee believed that every child should be given an opportunity to participate in public recreational programs — that it was important that these activities be held in the proper environment — that the maintenance and supervision of playgrounds was a governmental function.

In order that we may pay tribute for the services of one of the foremost benefactors of the entire nation in the field of recreation, I call attention to "Joseph Lee Day" — Friday, July 26, 1946, which is being appropriately observed on all Albany public playgrounds and recreation centers in this city.

I urge all, who find it convenient, to visit their neighborhood playground during this week.

CHARLES F. GRAEBER
Mayor

CAMPAIGN OPENS ON INFLATION

The emergency committee to combat inflation is sending communications to all Alameda County organizations today requesting them to send representatives to a community-wide organization meeting on July 24, at 7:45 p. m. at Ecci headquarters, 2030 Broadway, Oakland.

An all-out campaign against inflation is being planned. Representatives are expected from all cities and towns in the county. Films, on price control and inflation will be shown and basic printed information made available for circulation.

Chairman of the Alameda county committee, Arthur Eaton, who is also chairman of the Berkeley branch of the National Citizens Political Action Committee stated today that "for the past few months many organizations have tried on their own to demonstrate to congress the need for continuance of OPA. Their warnings were not heeded, and congress has completely succumbed to the will of giant corporate and financial aggregations who hope to make a quick killing during inflation and then pick off small businesses by the thousands when they go into bankruptcy 'when the boom has turned to bust'; now, as the public sees its pocket picked daily, united action is a must on our agenda to avoid disaster."

On Friday evening, July 5th at 8 p. m. a candlelight ceremony was performed at the Jackson home on Cornell Ave. uniting in marriage James R. Jackson and Naomi L. Davis.

Mrs. Woodrow Meek, of San Jose was candle lighter and Mrs. A. C. Meek of Burbank, matron of honor. Lieut. William E. Brown, U.S.A.A.F. was best man.

FIREMEN, POLICE IN BALL GAME

The question of whether the Albany "Cops" and the "Fire Laddies" can repeat last year's performance over the somewhat aged and powerful Albany Exchange Club will be settled in a softball game scheduled for 11 a. m. on Sunday, July 21, at Memorial Park.

Each club has one win to date and both Manager McSheehy of the Police and Fire and Manager Venter of the Exchanges are shooting the works and have promised a bitterly contested ball game. The Police and Firemen walked off with the perpetual trophy last year and the Exchange Club is determined that it won't happen again.

Judging from the previous games, a large crowd will be on hand to root for their favorite team as this contest should prove to be a real knock down and drag out affair. Fire Chief Fred Pimental boastfully states that it will be no contest with the Police and Firemen taking the game in a walk-away while Police Chief Stanley Williams Past President of the Exchange Club, says that the Exchange Club will win even if he has to pitch the ball game and publicly challenge Chief Pimental to take the mound for the Police and Firemen, opposing him.

Manager McSheehy of the Police and Firemen stated that Chief Williams is in a tough spot trying to maintain his loyalty to the Police Force; however, recognizes that Sergeant Smith and Officers Freeman and McLeod are playing members of the Exchange Club and that the black sheep will be back in the flock after the game.

When the smoke has finally cleared, the ball players and their families will join in a picnic lunch at the park under the supervision of Jack O'Leary, Superintendent of Streets and crying towels will be provided free of charge to the losing team by Doc McMahon, City Health Officer.

It seems that the Albany Firemen (Vintage of 1913) won a cup for being "hand-drawn" equipment champs. The present local "spark chasers" discovered the cup while they were remodeling their quarters. It was decided to offer this as a perpetual trophy each year to the club winning two out of three games.

Policeman Ralph Pearson, fast ball artist, is scheduled to take the mound opposing Exchangeite Ed Howell, famous for his spinner ball.

The line-up for the Exchanges will be: Jack Ragle, Earl Runyan, Harley Cornell, George Glavinovich, Vern Freeman, Ed Howell, Milt Gordon, Art Smith Bob Miller, Elmer Venter, Emmett Devin, Al Zerga, Henry Villa, Jim McLeod and Stanley Williams.

Police and Fire will field a team composed of: Ralph Pearson, John Hoeth, Earl Conner, John Hritz, Bill Hutt, Bob Baker, Dick McSheehy, Wess Marquart Boh Perkins and Kennard Harper.

Joseph Lee Week is observed in honor of Joseph Lee, the father of American recreation. He loved children and his fellow-men and he labored throughout his lifetime for their welfare in the fields of recreation, education, philanthropy, social service and legislation. He wished everyone to know something of the rich joy and satisfaction that he enjoyed in leisure time.

As a youth and into his late years he liked to sing, dance, box, fish, hike, skate, and sail a boat — (Continued on page three)

COMMUNICATED

Albany, July 8
Albany City Council.
Gentlemen:

On June 9, 1946, at about 11:30 a. m. Mr. N. P. Reckas, 1445 Thousand Oaks Boulevard, Albany, took a container of weeds and grass cuttings from his lawn to the Albany Dump.

Upon arrival at the Navy gate, he was issued the necessary permit by the Navy to proceed to the City Dump. When he got to the caretaker's shack, Mr. Reckas handed the permit slip to him; thereupon the caretaker directed him to dump his grass and weeds in the fire. He did as he was told, but when he approached the fire he heard several muffled, crackling sounds coming from the burning pile, and the next moment felt a hot sensation on his left cheek and left side of his throat.

At once blood began to drip on his shirt; he rushed to his car to look into his mirror and saw that the left side of his face and throat was covered with blood; a hole in his cheek was spurting the blood.

He informed the caretaker that there apparently was live ammunition in the fire, and advised him to keep others away to avoid further injuries. He then asked to be driven to the hospital but was told by the caretaker that he would not leave the dump; in that serious condition Mr. Reckas had himself to drive his car to his home, since his two year old daughter was with him. After reaching home, Mrs. Reckas at once drove him to the Berkeley Emergency Hospital.

There it was diagnosed that the injury was caused by some kind of ammunition, and the attending physician removed a primer of a shot-gun shell from Mr. Reckas' cheek. The primer had lodged against the cheek bone about 1/4 of an inch from the eye socket. Mr. Reckas might well have lost his eye, and could have been killed.

The irony of this situation is that Mr. Reckas served in the armed forces for 2 1/4 years; he was recently discharged and comes home to be injured in his own home city.

While the doctor was removing the primer from Mr. Reckas' cheek, the attending nurse at the Berkeley Emergency Hospital telephoned to the Albany Police Department and informed them that an Albany resident had been injured by exploding ammunition at the Albany dump.

In order to determine whether this dangerous practice of asking people to throw their refuse directly in the fire had been stopped, I went with a friend to the Albany dump yesterday. We took some leaves and grass clippings in a cardboard box. Upon arrival at the caretaker's shack, we were asked NO QUESTIONS as to whether we were Albany residents; the caretaker did NOT ASK to see what we had, but told us to dump our stuff into the pile where the fire was. We did as we were told. While we lingered a moment, six or seven other cars came along. All of the drivers had boxes and containers that could have had almost anything in them. Each went to the pile and threw his stuff into the burning heap.

Quite obviously nobody in authority in Albany is interested enough to see that the citizens are protected from accidents when going to the city dump. A month has passed since the accident described above, and the procedure of dumping has not been changed.

I, Therefore, request that necessary precautionary steps be taken at once to avoid further accidents at the Albany dump.

The city dump in Berkeley for example burns refuse at night, and never under any circumstances are people permitted to come near a fire there. There is no reason why

Pre-School Club Director Honored

Climaxing a year of busy activity, the Albany Pre-School Mothers' Club staged a authentic pre-sailing bon voyage party at the Albany Recreation Center on Wednesday night, July 10, honoring Mrs. Nell Curran, Pre-School Director, prior to her departure for a month's vacation in Alaska.

The party was preceded by a general meeting of the Club, wherein it was announced by Mrs. Ethel Cox, Chairman of Repairs, that each club member would be required to attend at least one repair session during the week of July 22 to July 27, to facilitate repairing and repainting school equipment before the new semester of the Pre-School opens on August 12.

PLAYGROUNDS

his interests were greatly diversified. He loved companionship as well as solitude. In a word, he loved life and wanted to see others enjoy it too. From the first playground in our country, opened in Boston in 1900 largely through his efforts, the great network of playgrounds and recreation centers now stretching across our continent owes a great deal to Joseph Lee.
 Born of wealthy Boston parents, he was educated at Phillips Exeter Academy and at Harvard University, and entered the practice of law. He was president of the National Recreation Association (1910-1937) and was awarded an honorary degree from Harvard. For his services as President of War Camp Community Service in World War One, he was awarded the Distinguished Service Medal. The latest honor to be bestowed on him (November 1944)—the Liberty ship, "Joseph Lee," bears his name proudly upon her prow—seems specially fitting. The recommendation was made by his friends. He loved the sea and was a descendant of sea captains.

THIS PROTECTION

It is easy to understand why the idea of paying for future funeral costs, through a Funeral Service Policy, is sweeping the nation. It is a protection that no ordinary insurance can provide because it not only stipulates how much or how little shall be spent—it also provides immediate cash to pay funeral bills.

This means that savings and insurance funds are kept intact for their intended purpose... security for those who remain.

We will gladly tell you about a reliable Plan which costs very little.

Attics Help In Goodwill Industries

In war or peace, communities tell of their history and of their characteristics in the things householders put into a Goodwill bag, according to Daniel Read, president of Oakland Goodwill Industries, where handicapped workers turn "waste into wages" at the rate of $150,000 a year.

War's outmoded household goods and emergency furnishings are still filling Goodwill trucks as a new record peacetime "spring cleaning" continues far into the summer, according to a report to Read by Dr. Frank Porter Flegal, Goodwill's executive secretary.

From Richmond, Albany, Berkeley, Alameda, Hayward, San Leandro, Vallejo, and from as far away as Petaluma, Santa Rosa and Sebastopol war workers' trappings such as welders' helmets, leather coveralls and other war industry work clothing crowd Goodwill bags.

Mingled with them are reminders of other wartimes and other peaceful eras as long-neglected attics and old homes both in city and country are cleared to furnish temporary quarters for returned veterans and their families still faced with a grave housing shortage.

ADMIRAL VENETIAN BLINDS

Shortages are holding him back

We in the Bell System were adding telephones at the rate of three million a year until shortages started getting worse. Now it's harder and harder for us to get materials for manufacturing and building.

We aren't complaining for we are in the same boat as every one else. But we thought you might like to know the supply situation on some of the biggest items in the telephone business.

LEAD—There is a world shortage of lead. Even when conditions here straighten out, it will be some time before adequate supplies are available.

COPPER—In great demand but we will probably have adequate supplies when the smelting, refining and fabricating plants get going.

TEXTILES—Serious shortage of cotton and synthetic yarns and fabrics, with demand greatly exceeding supply.

STEEL—Steel and coal strikes have affected supply in face of unprecedented demand.

RUBBER—Synthetics are in fair supply but natural rubber is on Government allocation.

LUMBER—Scarce supply due to unprecedented demand and dislocation of lumber trade.

BRASS MILL PRODUCTS—Used in Central Office switches and other telephone equipment. Supply will be short until disturbed conditions are settled in the copper industry, permitting brass mills to get back to full-scale production.

It's a tough situation, but we aren't giving up, any more than you have given up trying to get butter or sugar or shirts.

We're doing the best we can with what we've got and hoping these disturbed conditions will end, so we can really go full speed ahead.

ASK YOUR WATER HEATER DEALER

He knows what's right for YOUR home

In today's living there is need for greater and greater quantities of hot water because modern homes have both showers and bathtubs. Modern washing machines, linoleum floors and white woodwork also call for plenty of hot water for housecleaning. Be wise, talk things over with your water heater dealer. No modern home with bathroom, laundry and kitchen can get adequate hot water service from a 20-gallon water heater. An inadequate heater cannot stand up enough water for peak use, it becomes constantly overworked and wears itself out.

Veterans News

One out of every four veterans of World War II has filed a claim for disability pension, about half of which have resulted in monetary awards by the Veterans Administration.

The VA has paid out more than $500,000,000 so far to disabled veterans of World War II in pensions which range from $11.50 a month to as high as $300.

Over the past three months the VA has been settling 365,000 disability claims per month and expects the total to reach two and a quarter million this year.

Payments on disability claims filed within one year after release from service begin from the date of discharge. If the claim is filed after one year, payments start from the date of filing.

Question: Is the pension of a veteran subject to change if he takes a job?

Answer: No. Disabled veterans as their disability permits. These are encouraged to do such work does not affect the amount of their pensions because each disability pension is based on the veteran's disability as determined by the Veterans Administration rating schedule. Such pensions are subject to change only as the disability itself changes.

Q. I was required to sign a statement before my discharge that my disability existed prior to my enlistment. Will this prevent my receiving a pension?

A. No. A section of the Service-men's Readjustment Act provides that any statement of this nature

GREYHOUND BUSES TO GLOW IN DARK

Newest Highway Safety Measure

Outlines of Greyhound buses will soon glow at night from reflected lights of other cars, according to the president of Pacific Greyhound Lines F. W. Ackerman. For added safety, Greyhound will trim buses with war-developed plastic film containing thousands of microscopic glass lenses in every square inch. The Greyhound dog and designs on sides, front and rear are covered with this material. Appearance of the bus remains unchanged in daylight.

Equipping Greyhound's 4,500 buses with this safety feature will cost $250,000, Mr. Ackerman said, and it is believed Greyhound's example will encourage other motor vehicle operators to adopt similar safety methods.

"All Greyhound drivers carry emergency flares, so our buses are at no time without illumination," the bus executive said. "Most large truck companies take similar precautions, but which you may have made at discharge is considered null and void.

Q. Are wives of veterans entitled to medical care under the GI bill?

A. No. The Veterans Administration is not authorized to furnish medical care for dependents of veterans under any existing law.

Q. Are veterans of World War I eligible for benefits under the Servicemen's Readjustment Act (G.I. Bill)?

A. No. Its benefits are for World War II veterans only.
